Last Night's Smoking Concert

Conservative Gathering Last Night Was a Big Success.

The regular weekly smoking concert of the Conservative Association was held last evening, and was a pronounced success. Owing to the fact that several of the leading Conservatives were engaged at a Board of Trade meeting in connection with the coming convention, it was considerably after the prescribed hour before the meeting was called to order by Mr. Bush. It had been arranged that Mr. Craig and Mr. H. A. Mackie of Edmonton, should address the meeting, but at the last moment Mr. Craig had been called into the country on a case, while Mr. Mackie was delayed professionally.

Mr. Bush called upon Mr. Graham to address the meeting. The speaker devoted himself to strict criticism of the position taken up by Mr. McIntyre at his public meeting on Tuesday night. After criticizing the achievements which Dr. McIntyre took credit for he dealt with some of the points which the doctor had carefully avoided in his speech at the Oddfellows' Hall, such as the Marine and Fisheries, and the betrayal of Mr. Pringle. The speaker further pointed out that there was no division of opinion whatever on the general question of immigration and transportation. The Conservative party were as heavily in favor of immigration and increased transportation facilities as the Liberal party, but the Conservative party insisted that both immigration and transportation should be carried out in a business like way, without graft, deception, or waste. Having touched on the North Atlantic Trading Co. and the character of the immigration which it secured, the speaker declared that the statement of the Minister of the Interior that the Hudson Bay Railway was the paramount issue, was an absolute falsehood, as he had on the floor of the House congratulated Parliament on that question they were unanimous. The speaker wound up by declaring that the shortcomings of twenty years ago had nothing whatever to do with the issues of this campaign. They knew that the present government was corrupt and they should turn them out, and if the succeeding Tory government proved corrupt, they too must go.

Mr. Bush then called upon Mr. Cluff, who dealt in a most interesting fashion with the circumstances leading up to Dr. McIntyre's nomination. Mr. Cluff declared himself as absolutely open to machine politics, and severely scored Senator Talbot and Mr. Hon. Frank Oliver for the part they had taken in the nomination of Dr. McIntyre. Mr. Cluff further expressed his disapproval of the part that Dr. Rutherford was taking in Dominion politics. Everyone in Strathcona, said Mr. Cluff, irrespective of party, had very warm feelings towards the Premier, and they regretted exceedingly that he should have thought fit to take the platform in support of the deals of the Fifteen-Burns group. Mr. Cluff showed the absurdity of the Liberals' claim that they were the fathers of the Hudson Bay Railway, and dealt in a most interesting way with the various points that had been taken by the Conservatives. He also pointed out that the objections raised against the Grand Trunk were not levelled against the project, but against the manner in which the project was being carried out. The country had found ninety-ninths of the money to build this

GREAT TRIBUTE TO MCCARTHY

Calgary, Alta., Oct. 8.—The greatest tribute ever paid to a politician in Alberta was given to Mr. McCarthy this evening at the Conservative rally held in the theatre here. The place was packed to the doors by a thousand people, and as many more were turned away from the doors as would have filled the building again. The greatest enthusiasm was displayed when the speaker of the evening stepped on the platform, and the great audience sat for three hours listening to the addresses of McCarthy and R. B. Bennett. The meeting far exceeded anything ever held before in the city for enthusiasm. Many times the speakers almost had the audience on its feet and the outbursts of applause forced the speaker to pause at and women cheered the staid, logical speech of McCarthy to the echo and frequent interruptions for hearing. Men were holding two hours by a most stirring address by Bennett. Both speakers gave Hon. Frank Oliver, Minister of the Interior, a severe, scorching and eloquent "shame, it's a shame" interrupted the speakers at times when they had exposed some of the particularly interesting works of politics and the power of the "pull."

Mr. R. Lamb was then called upon and favored the audience with a song, and Mr. Mackie having meanwhile arrived from Edmonton Mr. Bush called upon him. Mr. Mackie is an orator of considerable dramatic ability, who kept his audience in one long ripple of laughter and applause. He touched the administration of the Department of the Interior with an earnestness and an oratorical fervor which carried conviction, he exposed the weakness of the plan set up by the Hon. Frank Oliver in Edmonton. "I start at Riverton Qui Bore on Tuesday," said Mr. Mackie, "and for a week I will be engaged in campaigning through the north country, and I challenge all Liberal politicians down to Duncan Marshall to meet me on the platform after dealing effectively with the timber, the minerals and the land in the deal the speaker startled his audience by revealing a specific case in which Mr. Oliver's boast that there was equality for all in home-coming was proved to be absolutely untrue. Mr. Mackie declared that he had a client who went to Mr. Mackie at the land office in Edmonton to file on a quarter section at Lake Michamun, but immediately afterwards received a notice that the entry had been cancelled and "cancelled" was written on the entry in the books of the land office. Meanwhile, however, a party holder, doubtless acting through his political pull, obtained an entry on this quarter section which was refused to a Conservative. Mr. Mackie kept his audience convulsed with laughter as he described his interview with Mr. McKenzie, which resulted in that gentleman admitting that the entry in the books and the lands had been alienated to companies and speculators in order that the settler might be benefited. First, dealing with the Saskatchewan Valley land deal, he asked if it was necessary that in order to benefit the settler the land should be given to this company at a dollar an acre, and he would demand to know how the interesting of this company between the Government that sold at a dollar an acre and the settler who had to buy at anything between eight and twelve dollars an acre was benefiting the settler. Passing on to Mr. Oliver's assertion that timber limits were given to Burnham for $10,000 of the matter he cited a particular instance of which he knew, occurred at Lac La Poudre. There are three houses there, one owned by a Frenchman and two owned by Englishmen. One of the Englishmen had set down certain timber limits for his house for the three, and had received threatening letters from Mr. Burnham if he did not get out of the timber limits. Mr. McKenzie asserted that he had himself seen the letter. Throughout his speech he seemed to have a certain timber dealer, he said, who runs against Mr. McKenzie during his meetings, and who has to go some to get out of his way. The speaker was recorded quite an ovation as the termination of his address.

Mr. Lavell, Mr. Jamieson and Captain Carstairs having said a few words, the meeting broke up with the singing of "God Save the King" and the cheers for Mr. Day. The feature of these meetings is the great enthusiasm, the hall being crowded last night.

MOUNTAIN MILLS MAY CLOSE

Vancouver, Oct. 8.—Coast and mountain lumbermen at a conference in Vancouver today failed to come to any arrangement for the reestablishment of a price agreement for the Northwest market. The subject was discussed in many phases, but the coast men decided that in order to permit some of the large Vancouver mills to work off their surplus of rough lumber it would be impossible for an agreement to be concluded with the mountain mills.

A representative of the mountain mills stated that it was improbable that 50 per cent. of the establishments would plant in that district would be closed down during the winter. Owners took the view that stock already on hand would not meet even a good demand, which was not expected until next spring, and there was no one to further increasing their supplies. It was estimated that a similar line of action on the part of the coast mills might be advisable for the general good of the business, but no definite request for such an action was preferred.

Strathcona's University

Tuesday, Oct. 13, When Convocation Meets Will Be a Red Letter Day

The authorities have determined to make Oct. 13th, the day fixed for the first convocation of the Alberta University, a red letter day for Strathcona. Arrangements have now been completed and it is to be hoped that the citizens will co-operate with the Board of Trade and the City Council and also with the university authorities in making the day a success. We desire to call attention at this point to a notice which appears elsewhere in our columns in which the members of a civic hall holiday. Further, we trust that the previous notices as to decorating the city will receive the hearty co-operation of all citizens. This is an opportunity for Strathcona to do justice to herself that will never occur again.

The arrangements for the day are briefly as follows: The city will give a luncheon to the senate at noon. The convocation will be held in the afternoon in the Oddfellows' hall, where the conferring of the degrees on the various members of convocation will be carried through. An address of welcome will be delivered by Mayor J. J. Duggan. Addresses will also be given by Mr. Justice Stuart, of Calgary; Mr. Langford, Bulyea, the Hon. Dr. Rutherford and others. The convocation will start from 3 to 4:30 p. m. at 5:00'clock the Lord-Governor and Mr. Bulyea hold a reception in the Oddfellows' Hall, to which all members of the convocation and the public at large are invited. The bottom hall will be used for the reception. The members of the council and their wives will be in the form of a warrant for arrest, and be asked Mr. McGillicuddy to accompany him to the police station. Mr. McGillicuddy carefully scanned the document, and replied, "Um, um." He also made some remarks, and then said to the reporters' room to consult with the having the officer and the reporters staff and closed the door behind him, he said.

In a few minutes one of the reporters emerged from the room and after carefully closing the door behind him, asked to have a look at the warrant. He looked at it, smiled and returned.

In a couple of minutes the door opened again and Mr. McGillicuddy appeared. "Sit down," he said to the officer, "Take a chair in the house and wait a few minutes until I can send for some one."

Once more the door was closed. During the conversation between Mr. McGillicuddy and Officer Douglas, the hand which daily parades the city in order to advertise the skating rink, passed behind the front windows of the office, playing a musical and inspiring air. It was a curious coincidence that the two which they were rendering should have been a march. "It was almost half past three when Mr. Clifford Jones, evidently being shy of some person," hurried into the News within a few seconds of his arrival

Arrest of "Breakwater Dan"

Dan McGillicuddy, Editor Calgary Daily News, Arrested On Charge of Slandering Editor Eye Opener

Calgary, Oct. 8.—Daniel McGillicuddy, managing editor of the Calgary Daily News, was placed under arrest yesterday, charged with criminal libel. This was the outcome of the publication of a letter in the News on Tuesday evening, attacking in most virulent language, R. C. Edwards, the editor of the Calgary Eye Opener.

It is safe to say that no newspaper article published in Calgary for some time has created such a sensation. Without any previous warning, without the slightest intimation, in a double column, first page anonymous letter signed "Fenistis," the News attacked in the bitterest language, the Eye Opener's editor, it, releasing scathingly to his antecedents, in his past, his present, his personality, his morality and his appearance.

The attack was the sole topic of conversation in the city on Tuesday night, and every person was speculating upon the next move, for it was the general opinion that Mr. Edwards would not submit to such an attack without a vigorous fight.

Mr. Edwards saw the article late on Tuesday night, and yesterday morning proceeded to make his move in the sensational battle. It took the form of an information sworn out for the arrest of Mr. McGillicuddy, charging him with criminal libel. The information is a rather voluminous document, consisting of more than ten pages of typewritten matter, which includes various portions of the offending article, and concludes by stating that the libel had been published "with the intention of imputing to R. C. Edwards four specific crimes."

It was well on in the afternoon before the preliminary details had been completed with, and it was about 2:30 when Officer Douglas started out to make the arrest. He was in plain clothes and quite unarmed.

It was just 2:40 when Officer Douglas entered the sanctum of the News editor, who were busy with the office work, and presented his message, which was in the form of a warrant for arrest, and be asked Mr. McGillicuddy to accompany him to the police station. Mr. McGillicuddy carefully scanned the document, and replied, "Um, um." He also made some remarks, and then said to the reporters' room to consult with the having the officer and the reporters staff and closed the door behind him, he said.

In a few minutes one of the reporters emerged from the room and after carefully closing the door behind him, asked to have a look at the warrant. He looked at it, smiled and returned.

In a couple of minutes the door opened again and Mr. McGillicuddy appeared. "Sit down," he said to the officer, "Take a chair in the house and wait a few minutes until I can send for some one."

Once more the door was closed. During the conversation between Mr. McGillicuddy and Officer Douglas, the hand which daily parades the city in order to advertise the skating rink, passed behind the front windows of the office, playing a musical and inspiring air. It was a curious coincidence that the two which they were rendering should have been a march. "It was almost half past three when Mr. Clifford Jones, evidently being shy of some person," hurried into the News within a few seconds of his arrival there, Mr. McGillicuddy, officer Douglas and Mr. Clifford Jones set out for the police station. From the appearance of the trio, it would have been gathered that they were three friends making their way to a pressing luncheon appointment.

As they entered the police station, which was crowded with press men, lawyers and others, they were chatting gaily. One of the few chairs in the small hall was placed at his disposal and as he took his seat, Mr. McGillicuddy remarked casually,

"When will the new building be completed. It will offer better accommodation than this place."

Some of his acquaintances who happened to be among the company greeted him cordially, and he responded to their greetings with marked affability.

It was not long before City Treasurer Burns, who is also one of the magistrates of the city, was brought in from the city hall, Magistrate Smith declining to take the case, as his name appeared in the article complained of, and Mr. Burns retired to the private office of the chief of police to talk over the question of a bail. This did not occupy more than a few moments. The magistrate accepted bail in $1,000, of which sum Mr. McGillicuddy was bound in $500, while Mr. Clifford Jones acted as his surety for the rest of the amount.

"Now," said Mr. Jones to his client, "you are free to go where you please." With a parting nod, Mr. McGillicuddy allowed his way through the few people who had crowded to hear what the amount of the bail would be, and disappeared, walking rapidly in the direction of the office. The preliminary hearing of the case will commence to-day at 10:30 a.m.

THE ARTICLE REPEATED.
Last night the News published a special edition of the paper, containing nothing additional in the paper of yesterday, except the letter of the day before. The newboys on the street yesterday yelling "Day after tonight's News, man!"

Later—About 150 people crowded into the courtroom this morning at 10:30 and waited patiently in order to listen to the preliminary hearing of the charge of criminal libel which has been brought against Daniel McGillicuddy by R. C. Edwards. Recently they waited until about 10:45 but no events took place, and it was almost 11 o'clock when somebody announced that the case had been adjourned until Monday next at 10:30.

While the would-be spectators were waiting their turn and exhausting their patience upstairs the proceedings were progressing at a rapid rate in the office of the chief of police. Shortly after 11 o'clock the door opened, and Daniel McGillicuddy arrived with his counsel, Clifford Jones, but a few seconds afterwards Magistrate Burns and Mr. Tweedy, who was representing R. C. Edwards during the temporary absence of P. J. Nolan, made their appearance.

The magistrate read the lengthy information and once did the defendant make any interruption. The magistrate allowed over one of the words in the document and Mr. McGillicuddy interpreted a remark by the magistrate as "I think this is 'Episcopus,' he said, mildly, mouthing the syllables lovingly, as with an air of propriety."

Both sides consented to an adjournment and after a little consultation as to date the magistrate adjourned the case until Monday next, Oct. 12. Meanwhile the crowd were staring into vacancy in the room above.

CURRENT COMMENT

Elsewhere in our columns we draw attention to the conversation which is to be held on Tuesday next. Our information may seem a little belated, as the news has already been given to the public through the columns of the Bulletin. Unfortunately, however, this is one of the disadvantages that the citizens of Strathcona have to contend with, as the political complexion of this paper prevents it receiving any news until the Globe or Gazette have had an opportunity of publishing it. Apparently even the university is not to be kept outside the pale of politics, and is to be reduced simply to the position of another cog wheel in the political machine. It seems strange at the first glance that in a city in which the majority both in the City Council and the Board of Trade are known to have Conservative leanings this should be possible, but anyone acquainted with the aggressive spirit and the conclusions of the political machine must know that he cannot and will not get notices from his mind for a moment. Conservatives are apt to assume that they are safe in leaving matters which should be of a non-political character in the hands of our Globe friends. Nothing could be a greater mistake. The average Globe is so constituted that apparently the doctrine of the fair deal never seems to enter his mind. This university business is only another example of how things are worked by the Globe politicians for the benefit of the conservative benefit of their political friends. We understand that in this case Dr. T. D. T. thought fit to rush across the river with his information to the Bulletin. We presume the fear of Duncan Marshall is as strong in his mind as it is in the mind of every servant of the Provincial government who knows that dismissal follows the affording of information to Opposition papers while the party of approval is the only outcome of information given to the Bulletin. Ask Mr. John Stocks. He knows all about it.

That Frank Oliver's falsehood as to the Hudson Bay Railway being the paramount issue is being carefully spread in every language throughout the West is abundantly proved by the source heading on the front page of the Le Courrier de l'Ouest, the French paper published in Edmonton in the interests of the Minister of the Interior. In glaring type the following headline head runs across the front page: "The Return of the Laurier government to power Assures the Construction of the Hudson Bay Railway." This is a little more skillful than the deliberate misstatement of Mr. Oliver. Here the lie is simply by inference. Mr. Oliver stated that the return of the Conservative party would prevent the construction of the Hudson Bay Railway. Our French friends merely insinuate this. Now a lie is a lie in whatever language it is published, and the man that is responsible for its entry does not cease to be responsible no matter how it may be twisted or twisted down, and we assert that Frank is deliberately deceiving the people of the West.

In our house columns will be found an article which must make every thinking man pause. A rumor is prevalent on the exchange of London and New York that the Grand Trunk directors propose withdrawing from the Transcontinental part of the railway, and as a result the Grand Trunk shares have crashed on the market from two to five points. That this is a phenomenal drop everyone acquainted with financial conditions on the stock exchange will realize, and the seriousness of the situation cannot be overestimated. The dispatches for the state that startling relations are expected and that the news is being suppressed as far as possible, is an outburst of popular indignation over the Laurier government. Can it be that after all the extravagance, that after the inflation of the price from thirteen million dollars to two hundred million dollars, that after the huge rick-offs, after the typical deals, after the manipulation by contractors and dealers of all descriptions, that something worse yet is to come? For Canada's sake we hope not, but the record of this present administration is not one to cause anyone to be over sanguine.

TRIBUNE TRUMPS.

Toronto's right chord societies and a number of better organs than the Globe.

Today Rossvelt, Jr., has accepted a job at $5 per week. If he only works in Canada, and had a brother-in-law in the Cabinet? He wouldn't have to work.

240,000 idle freight cars have gone into commission and returned to work in the U.S. This is helping out the very fact factories are closing because of the prospects of Bryan's election.

The Free Press, in contrast to the Globe, should know the timber limits held by the Government when Clifford resigned in the interior department, and those now held by Tad at the end of Clifford's reign.

The Toronto Globe represents Jack Caskey in arms with Sir Wilfrid saying: "I like to walk with a man who can set the pace for me." If Jack wants the real swift pace he would link up with Sir Frederick or Clifford.

"He would sooner be Minister of Public Works in Manitoba than sit on the left of Mr. Speaker in the Dominion Parliament," says the Free Press of Hon. Robt. Rogers who didn't run for Winnipeg. Perhaps the old lady of Portage avenue is too sensible to see it, but this is surely a very frank, if unintentional, admission that the Conservatives will win this city.

The Toronto Sun prints the expenditures of the Laurier Government inside a mourning border. It's not misplaced.

Now that the opposition nomination has been made, the Laurierites are busy picking out a strong opposition man who would have had a dead end in the seat. The Conservatives were doing the same thing for the Laurierites a few days ago.

How many have the opportunity of a good education, and did not obtain it? Why? They could hardly tell you themselves, their parents would probably say laziness, stupidity, want of brains and although they cannot ascribe a better reason they feel the injustice of the statement, yet in 99 cases out of a hundred the eyes can be positively proved at fault. If in doubt, consult Dr. Harvey, the Eye Specialist, Thursday Oct. 8 is correct date.

Montreal, Oct. 8.—The most noteworthy statement during this morning's proceedings of inquiry into the affairs of the marine department by Judge Canale, was made by a Sord grocer named Lemoine, to the effect that goods he had sold to the department included coal oil for the dredge at the Imperial Oil company, and when Shamrock. He obtained the oil from the fact why the government did not deal with the company, witnesses was unable to state the reason. He had received orders from the department amounting to about three thousand dollars, and his profits, he estimated, at about twenty per cent. Oliver Dupile, a word merchant of Sord, sold wood to the department on which the profits amounted to between twelve and twenty per cent.

Jean Baptiste Assaut, formerly of Sord, had also sold wood to the department amounting in all to about twelve thousand dollars. Wood sold was not by tender but by fixed price. He denied having paid commission to anyone.

GRAND TRUNK STOCK COLLAPSE.

New York, Oct. 8.—The stock market report today says that the Grand Trunk's predicament in relation to the Grand Trunk Pacific has caused a great upheaval in the inside circles of that system, chiefly because of its C. T. stocks, which today in London from 3 to 5 points. It is pointed out that the reason for the collapse was the announcement that a dividend had not been earned, but everybody knew weeks ago that a dividend was not earned.

Penny Wise

It is a saying that does not save. There is no satisfaction or profit in saving a few cents on a prescription and getting medicine of an inferior quality. Unless medicine is skillfully compounded by experienced persons, it is costly at any price. The thing to look out for, to insist upon, is quality. Quality is the only thing to think of when we buy drugs. If you want the satisfaction of knowing that your prescription is absolutely right bring it here. The price will be reasonable, no more and no less than the drug and work is worth. No one can fill a prescription so it ought to be filled for less than we shall charge.

J. G. ANDERSON, Farmers Independent Candidate

For The Constituency of Strathcona

Everyone should attend Mr. J. G. Anderson's meeting on Saturday afternoon and evening and hear good sound reasons for voting for an independent farmer's candidate, and how people will realize that their interests are so closely allied with the farmers that anything for the betterment of the farmer or legislation in the farmer's interest is in direct harmony with their interests. Let us get a clean representative, and down the mud singers. Give the two parties a few weeks more and they will be covered with their own slime.

Give us men whose actions will be such that they will not need to spend all their time defending their actions and throwing mud at the other side.

Mr. J. G. Anderson will address public meeting in the opera house, Strathcona, in the afternoon at 4 p. m. Evening at 8 p. m.

Everybody welcome.

the most powerful healer in the world is Zam-Buk, and we offer you a free trial box. Zam-Buk combines the knowledge of the ancients with the science of the moderns. The charioteers, gladiators, and wrestlers of ancient Greece bruise, and to amoint their injuries with secret balms without some gaping wound or severe malice emerged from their contests was part of the day's program. In Zam-Buk you have the modern representative of these ancient healers. Ordinary ailments contain mostly random results. Zam-Buk, on the contrary, is absolutely free from any trace of animal fat or mineral poison. It is made from purely herbal essences, is so concentrated and purified that it is suitable for the delicate skin of children, and yet so powerful as to be equal to the most stubborn sore, ulcer, or chronic wound. Zam-Buk never goes rancid. It always keeps clean, fresh, and sweet. Nature has given us the instinct to rub a place that hurts. She has also given him Zam-Buk. Nature's own healing process begins. It prevents suppuration, blood poisoning, etc. It draws out inflammation, ends pain and smarting, and heals. The best test is a personal test. Send in for a free box and let Zam-Buk prove its own case. See coupon below.

POISONED WOUND COMPLETELY HEALED!

Mrs. WILLIAM MUMFORD of 12 Tonkin Street, Montreal, writes: "I was walking about in my street I tripped on a rusty nail, which penetrated the flesh deeply, leaving an ugly wound. I washed the nail and applied a salve, but next morning my foot was red and swollen, and the pain was such that I had to lay off work. I could not bear to put my foot on the ground. I feared blood poisoning, and my days I suffered intense pain. Just at this time I friend brought me some Zam-Buk, and I placed it on the wound and my foot was wonderfully improved. I renewed with Zam-Buk, and it soon healed a monstrous sore. It is a wonderful cure."

Zam-Buk heals sores, eczema, skin eruptions, ulcers, rheumatism, itch, leather's rash, blood poison, bad leg and thumb, abrasions, chafes, cuts, burns, warts, and all skin irritations. Send for a box of 25 boxes and 50 boxes. From Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price.

Go to the blood, if you are to drive rheumatism. A Wisconsin physician, Dr. Shoop, does this with his Rheumatic Remedy—and with seeming success. Rub-on's, says the doctor, never fails rheumatism. It is more than skin deep. It is constitutional always. Because of this principle, Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy is perhaps the most popular in existence. It goes by word of mouth from one to another, everywhere. Grateful patients gladly spread the word. It is an act of humanity to tell the sick of a way to health. Tell some sick one. Sold by all dealers.

WAR IS NOW LESS LIKELY.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 8.—The probability (lowest) of the Balkans as today looked, according to a dispatch received at the state department from Mr. Rives, secretary of the American embassy at Vienna. Mr. Rives made this statement after communicating to the department the announcement of the Emperor of Austria that he extends the right of sovereignty of himself and the house of Hapsburg over Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Hon. Engelmann, the Austrian-Hungarian ambassador, was a caller on Secretary Root at the State Department today.

Belgrade, Serbia, Oct. 7.—King Peter has just returned here from the army manoeuvres. The senate has been summoned to deal with the present crisis. An office has been established in the principal square of the city for the enlistment of volunteers. The Jelenovs of Belgrade have informed the government that in the event of war they will subscribe $500,000 as a first contribution to a war fund.

Belgrade, Serbia, Oct. 8.—The government has addressed an energetic protest to the signatories of the Berlin treaty against Austria-Hungary's breach of the provision of the treaty in setting the occupied provinces of Bosnia and Herzegovina. This step it is contended here, will prove fatal to the future of Serbia.

The Serbian parliament has been summoned in extraordinary session for Oct. 10.

The popular clamor for a war with Austria-Hungary continues unabated. Special steps have been taken to insure the safety of Austrians in Serbia.

Stomach troubles would more quickly disappear if the idea of treating cause, rather than the effect, would come into practice. A tiny, inside, all in one, says Dr. Shoop, governs and gives strength to the stomach. A branch also goes to the heart, and one to the kidneys. When these "inside nerves" fail, then the organs must suffer. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is directed specifically to these failing nerves. Within 45 hours after starting the Restorative treatment patients say they realize a gain. S.M. by all dealers.
